

DAVID RIJKS

PERSONAL

Name David Désiré Floris Rijks
Date of Birth 17 June 1982
Place of Birth Utrecht, The Netherlands
Nationality Dutch

EDUCATION

- 2005 (since Oct) University of Cambridge
- Ph.D. candidate, Centre of International Studies.
 - Dissertation on the effects of cross-pillar relations on the role of Member States', the European Commission and actors in the Council in the diplomatic representation of the EU in third states.
 - Successfully completed intensive 'Joint School Training for Ph.D. Students in Transferable Skills and Research Methods' course and Departmental course 'Research Methods in International Relations'.
- 2003 – 2004 Leiden University
- Master of Art in Public Administration "with great honour".
 - Specialisation in European Governance.
 - Thesis on the development of the EU common policy on the International Criminal Court within the Common Foreign and Security Policy.
- 2000 – 2003 University College Utrecht
- Bachelor of Art in Social Sciences, cum laude.
 - Major in International Relations and Politics.
- 2002 University of California, Berkeley
- Academic exchange. Coursework in International Relations theory and International Political Economy.
- 1994 – 2000 Revis Lyceum Doorn
- Graduated cum laude.

PROFESSIONAL

- 2006 – 2007 University of Cambridge
- Research assistant to Prof. C.J. Hill and project manager EU-CONSENT Team 22 'Foreign Policy: the Role of the EU in the World'.
 - Project manager Third EU-CONSENT Ph.D. School in Cambridge
- 2005 Leiden University
- Junior lecturer in Public Administration. Course title: 'Governance in the European Union I: Institutions and Decision-Making'.
- 2003 – 2004 Netherlands Ministry of Foreign Affairs
- Junior policy advisor, Task Force International Criminal Court.
 - Co-responsible for the coordination and mainstreaming of the ICC in EU Working Groups.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS

- 2007 ■ Fellow, European Foreign and Security Policy Studies Programme, Compagnia di San Paolo, Riksbankens Jubileumsfond, Volkswagen-Stiftung
- 2006 ■ Scholarship Foundation ‘Vrijvrouwe van Renswoude’
- 2005 ■ Jan van Hout prize for best MA thesis in Public Administration
- 2005 ■ Cambridge European Trust, three-year Research Studentship
- 2005 ■ Hughes Hall, Cambridge, three-year Research Studentship
- 2005 ■ Prince Bernhard Cultural Foundation, Scholarship for Talented Scholars
- 2005 ■ VSB Foundation
- 2005 ■ Dr. Hendrik Muller’s Vaderlandsch Fonds
- 2002 ■ Utrecht University, Trajectum Scholarship

PUBLICATIONS

- Rijks, D. and Whitman, R. (2007) ‘European diplomatic representation in third countries: trends and options’ in Towards a European Foreign Service, European Policy Centre Working Paper, No. 28, forthcoming.
- Rijks, D. (2007) ‘The New Member States and the Pressures for Global Representation’, EU-CONSENT Working Paper, presented at “The CFSP: Issues of Representation and Responsibility, Cambridge 27-28 April 2007.
- Rijks, D. and Groenleer, M. (2008) ‘The Politics of International Criminal Justice: The EU and the International Criminal Court’, in K.E. Joergensen (ed.) The European Union and International Organisations, forthcoming.

LANGUAGES

- English : Excellent
- Dutch : Native
- French : Good
- German : Good
- Spanish : Elementary

E-MAIL DDFR2@CAM.AC.UK

HUGHES HALL, MORTIMER ROAD, CAMBRIDGE CB1 2EW, UNITED KINGDOM